

the Cass Centre

An ideal venue for your business, leisure and sporting event

www.cambridge.org/casscentre

The Cass Centre stands on the site of Cambridge University Press, the oldest printing and publishing house in the world. Located just a short distance from the beautiful university city of Cambridge, the Cass Centre provides an inspirational setting for a host of business and leisure events, including conferences, exhibitions, team-building days, corporate social events, private functions and sports activities.

Despite its historical connections, the Cass Centre is a contemporary building that is striking in its design and unique in its personality. The venue also provides a modern working environment in a peaceful location that is easily accessible from Cambridge city centre, the M11 and the rail network.
