

Conferences

“...everything was as excellent as last time!”

John Porter, Business Improvements

“Our visitors were very impressed by the surroundings – a real Cambridge experience”

Elisabeth Conolly, Sepura Ltd

“I found planning the event really easy; we were really impressed with the buffet menus”

Cath Hodgson, Move On Project Support Assistant
Cambridge Training and Development Ltd

Four hundred years

As a conference and meeting venue Emmanuel College is hard to equal. There is a choice of rooms and styles which is unmatched in Cambridge ranging from the intimacy of the Fellows Breakfast Room accommodating just 10 delegates boardroom style, to the splendour of the Queen's Building Auditorium seating 150.

THE QUEEN'S BUILDING See separate leaflet

CAMDEN HOUSE is an elegant Regency House with two modern, well equipped meeting rooms – Camden House Drawing Room overlooking the garden and Camden House Meeting Room which overlooks Parker's Piece. Both rooms have recently been redecorated and are set up boardroom style. They have wall mounted whiteboards and flip charts and in addition the Drawing Room is equipped with the latest technology in the form of an Interactive Whiteboard.

Refreshments and buffet meals can be served in both rooms.

THE MUSEUM This is probably one of the most unusual meeting rooms in any Cambridge College. It is housed in the oldest part of the College, Old Court completed in 1634, and in it is displayed a wide ranging and interesting array of historical artefacts and memorabilia connected to the history of the College.

It is ideal for a range of small corporate events such as a board meeting, an away day for a small project team, or an area meeting for a sales team.

Refreshments and buffet meals can be served.

THE OLD LIBRARY This historic, wood panelled room dating in parts from medieval times makes a splendid setting for a conference, a concert or a banquet. The room is ideal for a drinks reception or the serving of buffet meals.

THE GARDNER ROOM The walls in this light and airy room are adorned with portraits painted in oil and it can be used on its own for meetings, or as a breakout or dining room in conjunction with Upper Hall to which it is connected by a short passageway.

THE UPPER HALL This is one of the most versatile rooms in the College, and is suitable for almost any event. It can be set out in any style for meetings of up to 100 delegates and it can be used for most dining purposes – from formal dinners to decorated buffets. It is also a great place to have an evening event with its corner bar and ample space for dancing and entertainment. The adjoining Gardner Room can be used as a quiet refuge by those who want to get away from the main activities.

THE FELLOWS' BREAKFAST ROOM Intimate and overlooking Front Court and the Wren Chapel, a more appropriate room for a board meeting or corporate away day would be hard to imagine.

Refreshments and buffet meals can be served.

Entrance to the College from St Andrew's Street

*Top: The Old Library and Lower Hall from New Court.
Above: A drinks reception in the Old Library. Above right: The Wren Chapel.*

Room capacities

CAMDEN HOUSE

Drawing Room 20 seated

Meeting Room 15 seated

THE MUSEUM

20 boardroom style

THE OLD LIBRARY

100 theatre style

80 cabaret style

150 standing

THE GARDNER ROOM

45 seated

80 standing

THE UPPER HALL

100 theatre style

80 cabaret style

150 standing

THE FELLOWS' BREAKFAST ROOM

10 seated

Seating arrangements

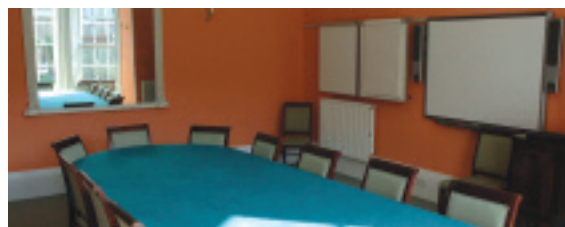

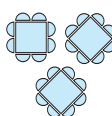

Theatre style

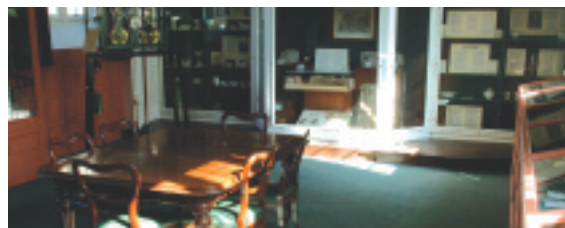

Boardroom style

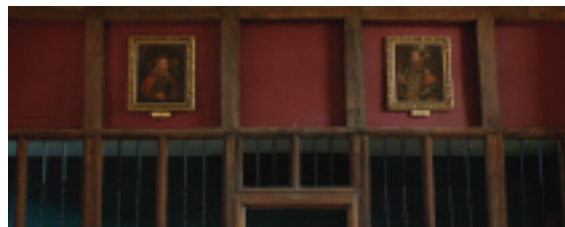

Cabaret style

Camden House

The Museum

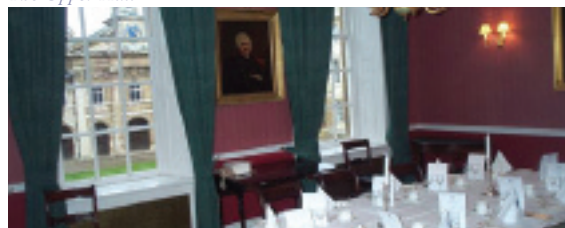

The Old Library

The Gardner Room

The Upper Hall

The Fellows' Breakfast Room

